Volume III, Number 1: Fall 1975

Guest Editorial
Philip L. Smith

Are Schools Truly Inept? A Reappraisal of the Most Controversial Report of our Time
Donald D. Chipman

Model for Change: A Rural Elementary School
Gerald C. Ubben

The College of Education and Its Students—Until Death Do Us Part
Edgar L. Sagan

Research and Evaluation in Education: A Means of Economic Survival
Robert Leonetti

Schools and School Systems as Formal Organizations
Frederick M. Schultz

New Perspectives in Individualized Instruction
H. James Funk and L. James Walter

Education and a Question of Morality
Edmund C. Short

The Media Director and Administrative Competence
Bruce Petty

Teaching Strategies and Learning Processes
Russell French