Vol. V, Number 3, Spring 1978

Viewpoint

Mainstreaming: Issues and answers
Bill R. Wagonseller and Donald F. McHenry

Providing education for emotionally disturbed children in the least restrictive environment
Robert H. Zabel

Integrating handicapped and nonhandicapped preschool children
Mary Kay Zabel

Finding a mainstream for the gifted
Myrliss Hershey

Implications for teacher education as adult development
V. Lois Erickson and Jeanette Luise Eberhardt

Competencies needed by school counselors in order to facilitate mainstreaming
Pamela V. Cochran

Who has specific learning disabilities
Norma J. Dyck

An operational approach to mainstreaming—making it work
Gary A. Livingston

Mainstreaming: Implications for special education funding
Nelda H. Cambron

Mainstreaming colleges of education: an opinion
Edward L. Meyen

Beyond mainstreaming to least restrictive environment
Ernest E. Singletary and Gary D. Collings